All these influences have tended to depress prices, but in the face of this, however, a moderate amount of transactions have occurred, and the recede of quotations is barely a fraction lower than last week. The principal demand has been for Strained, but fine rosins were in moderate enquiry with a fair amount of transactions at about former rates.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE-Tais article seems to show much the same general features, as noted in our last. The market has not been positively dull, but there has been an uneasy and unsettled feeling prevading the market which has, more or less, had the effect to demoralize prices. The market, however has not declined materially and closes to-day quiet at 30 cents bid with 120 tons salt. The receipts and manufacture for the Steamship Lucille, Bennett, Baltiweek were 2,610 casks, against 3,384 casks for last week. Thursday, no sales reported. CRUDE TURPENTINE-There has a somewhat improved rate been paid this week on former quotations. A large inquiry has existed among distillers who have had the war of prices among themselves. On Tuesday there was an advance of 10 cents on Hard, 15 cents on Yellow Dip and 80 cents on Virgin. To-day the market is quiet and firm at $1 30 for Hard, $2 25 for Yellow Dip and $4 30 for Virgin Pbb!. The receipts for the week were 858 bbls, against 436 bbls, for last week.
